

Shadowland

Words and Music by Lisa Reiff

Deep in the Shadowland
That's where You found me
Far from the sunlit place where I began
There on the darkened path
Hoping shadow would hide me
From life's bitter wounding
And regrets from the past
In the Shadowland

Where was the peaceful place
From days long forgotten
How did I lose my way
Would help ever come
Waiting and wand'ring in the deafening silence
Deep in the Shadowland
Far, far from home

But there, round the bend, through the mist
Rays of sunlight, Your voice
My name on the wind
Running fast, love so strong, grace so free
Shadows melting away
Mercy flooding my soul
In the Shadowland

We walked in the quiet
Side by side through the shadows
Years spent in darkness were all left behind
I told you my secrets
You offered forgiveness
Out into the sunlight with Your hand in mine

It was there, round the bend, through the mist
Rays of sunlight, Your voice
My name on the wind
Running fast, love so strong, grace so free
Shadows melting away
Mercy flooding my soul
In the Shadowland

And there, round the bend, through the mist
Rays of sunlight, Your voice
My name on the wind
Running fast, love so strong, grace so free
Shadows melting away
Mercy flooding my soul

Deep in the Shadowland
That's where You found me
With hope so unending and joy so complete
You loved me and healed me
You stayed close beside me
There in the Shadowland
Where my life began
